Outcomes of the Program

National Consumer Rights Day aims to educate the consumers about their rights and help them to gain maximum benefits, all the while ensuring that they are not exploited. It also educates them to take action against unfair trade practices. The objectives of consumer awareness include: Right to Information: Consumers have the right to access information about the quality, quantity, strength, standards, and prices of products or services. This empowers them to make informed decisions and protects them from deceptive practices. This program creates awareness on consumers rights among the students.
